

OH 872/1 Johnny Marchioro

TIME	SUMMARY	KEYWORDS
0.00.00	Introduction: Johnny's family background and his early years, overview of his life in market gardens	Johnny (Giancarlo) Marchioro, Eleonora, Frogmore Road, Torrensville, market garden, White Avenue Lockleys, Port Wakefield Road, Bolivar
0.01.14	Growing up in a market gardening family in the 1940s and selling vegetables at market; experience of family during World War II; memories of schooling and friends	Alice Springs, Del Fabbro, cement work, Chev(rolet) truck Bruno Piovesan, Egidio Ballestrin, Frankie Ballestrin, Adami's, Flinders Park primary school
0.05.56	Johnny's father's first years in Adelaide and marriage by proxy to his mother, her arrival in Adelaide 1937/1938	Marriage by proxy, Hindley Street, Waymouth Street, Vincenza, Malo, Monte di Malo
0.08.46	Early married life of Johnny's parents up to 1949 and relatives, leaving Frogmore Road to buy land at Lockleys and start market gardens	Frogmore Road, Crotti's, Bailetti's Pierson Street, Lockleys
0.09.44	Description of market gardens on Frogmore Road	Frogmore Road, Grange Road, River Torrens, boxthorns
0.10.36	Closeness with neighbouring Italian families when Johnny's father was sent away during World War II and train carriage used as family accommodation	Tonellato's Piovesan's
0.12.01	Size of land, owners and market gardeners' leaseholds at Frogmore Road	Robinson trotting track, Harris Scarfe family
0.12.58	1950s and changes to land ownership; market gardeners purchasing land	Louis Tonellato, asphalt, Valetta Road
0.14.27	Memories of his family moving to Lockleys, moving 14 glasshouses	Findon, White Avenue, Boss Huelin, River Torrens
0.15.51	Johnny describes working with his father from 16 years old, acquisition of additional glasshouse, selling vegetables at market	East End market
0.18.00	Processes involved in making seed, planting, growing, pruning, picking and preparing vegetables for sale at market - working with both his parents in the glasshouses	Holbrook & Sons, Central market, Eddy Smith, glasshouses, watering, hoeing, gutter, furrow
0.26.12	First job after leaving school, playing sport including League Football for West Torrens 1959 - 1963, balancing sport with work in the market gardens and the hard work in the glasshouses	West Torrens, XXXX, 'drill the rows', scarifier, XXXTom Hank
0.31.43	Johnny describes his brother's experience of polio and his working life	Polio, isolation, Northfield [hospital], carpentry, Torrensville, Findon Road, Rowells Road, Barbeque Inn in Hindley Street, Jetty Road

OH 872/1 Johnny Marchioro, CONTINUED

TIME	SUMMARY	KEYWORDS
0.33.37	Johnny describes the neighbourhood of White Avenue Lockleys from 1949, building of the new family home, other market gardens and growers in the area. Processes involved in selling produce in Melbourne	White Avenue, Pierson Street, Henley Beach Road, XXXChiera, Bulgari, Huelin, Boulderstone (Charlie), John Martin's bulk store, hawkers, Findon Road, half-case
0.41.07	1945 incident at the market gardens at Findon that led to the parent's decision to move to Lockleys – theft of 300 pounds. Lessons learned from parents.	Frogmore Road, Pierson Street
0.43.33	Johnny's marriage to Eleonora in 1965, their work to establish their market garden at Bolivar with 21 glasshouses, family life, 38 – 40 years of working as market gardeners at Bolivar	Bolivar, rotary hoe, artichokes, greengrocer
0.54.51	Changes from 1965 – 1970, Johnny's parents sell market gardens at Lockleys, subdivision of land	White Ave
0.57.00	End of session	